SUBJECT

: CIA Management System: Performance Evaluation and Annual Report

- Instructions for the preparation of the Annual Report and Performance Evaluation are attached. These documents offer several suggestions for adapting FY 1974-1975 objectives to a FY 1973 time frame. You should apply this guidance to the maximum extent practicable. I suggest that there are several other areas you can look to for some help, such as:
 - a. your recent program submission which notes significant accomplishments and productivity data for FY 1973/FY 1972;
 - b. your Office's annual report of last year which had a section called "Looking Ahead" or "Ahead." This section talked about things you wanted to get done in FY 1973; and
 - c. your Office's response last year to OMB Circ.lar A-44 (Revised) on the Management Review and Improvement Program.
